Why attend

Digital services require continuous discovery and delivery to meet user needs. This course covers product strategy, discovery, outcome-based roadmaps, prioritisation, experimentation, metrics and working with agile delivery teams, specifically for digital services in public and private organisations.

Digital services succeed when managed as evolving products, not one-off projects. This course gives you the product management skills to deliver ongoing value.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

• Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
• Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
• Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

The course uses product case work, discovery exercises, roadmap workshops and metrics design.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
• Define product vision and strategy for digital services
• Conduct product discovery with users
• Build outcome-based roadmaps
• Prioritise using value and evidence
• Run experiments and measure product outcomes
• Work effectively with agile delivery teams

Target audience

This course is suitable for:
• Product managers
• Digital service owners
• Product owners
• Business analysts
• Digital transformation leaders

Course content
