Why attend

Bribery and corruption expose organisations to criminal liability, fines and reputational damage. This course covers international anti-bribery laws, high-risk areas such as gifts, hospitality, agents and public officials, risk assessment, due diligence, controls, training, investigations and adequate procedures.

Organisations can be liable for bribery committed by employees and third parties. This course helps you build effective anti-corruption controls.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

- Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
- Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
- Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

The course uses case studies, red flag exercises, risk assessment workshops and policy reviews. It provides general guidance and does not constitute legal advice.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
- Explain key international anti-bribery laws
- Identify high-risk activities and red flags
- Conduct bribery risk assessments
- Implement policies on gifts, hospitality and facilitation payments
- Perform third-party due diligence
- Investigate and respond to bribery concerns

Target audience

This course is suitable for:
- Compliance officers
- Legal professionals
- Procurement and sales managers
- Internal auditors
- Senior managers in international business

Course content

Target competencies

Participants will develop competencies in:

- Anti-bribery law awareness
- Risk assessment
- Policy implementation
- Third-party due diligence
