Why attend

Constructive relationships with regulators help organisations stay compliant and influence rules that affect them. This course covers understanding regulators' roles, regulatory communication principles, consultation responses, meetings and inspections, reporting incidents to regulators and building credibility over time.

Poor regulator communication can turn minor issues into enforcement actions. You will learn to communicate openly and effectively.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

• Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
• Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
• Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

Consultation response writing, mock regulator meetings, incident notification exercises and case studies.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
• Understand regulators' objectives and powers
• Apply principles of regulatory communication
• Write effective consultation responses
• Prepare for meetings and inspections
• Report incidents to regulators appropriately
