Why attend

When businesses face financial distress, decisive action can preserve value for stakeholders. This course explains how to recognise early warning signs, stabilise cash, develop a turnaround plan, restructure debt and operations, and negotiate with lenders, suppliers and shareholders. Participants analyse distressed company cases and build a turnaround plan.

Economic shocks and rising interest rates have increased the number of companies under financial stress. This course gives finance and business leaders the tools to respond early and effectively.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

- Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
- Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
- Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

The course combines distress analysis, 13-week cash flow exercises, restructuring option workshops, negotiation role plays and turnaround case studies.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Identify early warning signs of financial distress
- Stabilise liquidity through short-term cash management
- Diagnose the causes of underperformance
- Develop operational and financial turnaround plans
- Understand debt restructuring options and processes
- Negotiate with creditors and stakeholders

Target audience

This course is suitable for:

- CFOs and finance directors
- Turnaround and restructuring professionals
- Bankers in workout units
- Business owners and general managers
- Advisers and insolvency professionals

Course content

Target competencies

Participants will develop competencies in:

- Distress diagnosis
- Cash stabilisation
- Turnaround planning
- Debt restructuring
- Stakeholder negotiation
- Business recovery
