Why attend

The EU Corporate Sustainability Reporting Directive requires many companies to report detailed sustainability information under European Sustainability Reporting Standards. This course covers scope and timelines, double materiality, ESRS requirements, data collection and controls, value chain information, assurance and implementation planning.

CSRD reporting is complex and requires preparation across finance, sustainability and operations. This course helps you understand requirements and plan implementation.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

• Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
• Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
• Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

The course uses materiality workshops, ESRS walk-throughs, data mapping exercises and implementation planning. It provides general guidance and does not constitute legal advice.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
• Explain CSRD scope, requirements and timelines
• Conduct a double materiality assessment
• Understand ESRS cross-cutting and topical standards
• Identify data needs and build controls
• Address value chain information
• Prepare for assurance and plan implementation

Target audience

This course is suitable for:
• Sustainability and ESG managers
• Finance and reporting professionals
• Compliance professionals
• Internal auditors
• Senior managers responsible for reporting

Course content

Target competencies

Participants will develop competencies in:

- CSRD requirements
- Double materiality
- ESRS application
- Sustainability data management
- Value chain reporting
- Assurance readiness
