Why attend

Expanding into new countries offers growth but also new risks. This course covers export marketing and international expansion: market selection, entry modes, adapting products and messages, international pricing, distributor and agent partnerships, export promotion support and building an international marketing plan.

Many companies enter export markets opportunistically and struggle. You will learn a structured approach to international growth.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

• Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
• Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
• Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

Market selection exercises, entry mode case studies, pricing calculations and plan development.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
• Assess and prioritise international markets
• Choose suitable market entry modes
• Adapt products, branding and communication
• Set international pricing
• Select and manage distributors and agents
• Build an international marketing plan

Target audience

This course is suitable for:
• Export and international managers
• Marketing managers
• Business owners
• Business development staff
• Trade promotion officers
