Why attend

Forensic accountants combine accounting, investigation and legal knowledge to uncover and quantify financial wrongdoing. This course covers forensic accounting techniques: fraud schemes, financial statement analysis, tracing funds, document examination, digital evidence, quantifying losses and preparing reports for legal proceedings.

Financial misconduct requires specialist techniques to uncover and prove. You will learn the core tools of forensic accounting.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

- Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
- Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
- Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

Case-based exercises, fund tracing practice, data analysis and report writing.
