Why attend

International assignments help organisations transfer skills and develop global leaders, but they are costly and complex. This course covers global mobility strategy, assignment types, selection, compensation approaches, immigration, tax and social security considerations, relocation support, duty of care and repatriation.

Poorly managed assignments lead to failure, high costs and compliance risk. This course helps you design and manage mobility programmes effectively.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

• Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
• Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
• Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

The course uses case studies, policy design workshops, cost estimation exercises and scenario discussions. It provides general guidance and does not constitute tax or legal advice.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
• Explain global mobility strategy and assignment types
• Select and prepare assignees
• Design assignment compensation and benefits
• Understand immigration, tax and social security basics
• Provide relocation support and duty of care
• Manage repatriation and retention

Target audience

This course is suitable for:
• Global mobility specialists
• HR managers in international organisations
• Reward professionals
• Talent managers
• Line managers of international assignees

Course content

Target competencies

Participants will develop competencies in:

- Mobility policy
- Assignee selection
- Assignment compensation
- Compliance awareness
- Duty of care
- Repatriation
