Why attend

Humanitarian crises involve many agencies, governments and communities working under pressure. This course covers humanitarian coordination: humanitarian principles, coordination architecture, needs assessments, cluster approach, information management, access and negotiation, accountability to affected populations and working with local actors.

Poor coordination leads to gaps and duplication in aid. You will learn how humanitarian coordination works in practice.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

- Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
- Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
- Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

Simulation of coordination meetings, needs assessment exercises, case studies and negotiation role plays.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
- Explain humanitarian principles and architecture
- Conduct coordinated needs assessments
