Why attend

Public sector leaders work with political direction, public accountability, tight budgets and complex stakeholder expectations. This course develops leadership skills for government and public bodies: translating policy into delivery, leading under scrutiny, managing performance in a public service culture, collaborating across agencies and driving improvement for citizens.

Public leadership differs from private-sector management in important ways. You will learn approaches that work within public sector rules and values.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

• Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
• Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
• Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

Public sector case studies, stakeholder simulations, policy-to-delivery workshops and peer learning.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
• Explain the context and values of public leadership
• Translate policy objectives into delivery plans
• Lead with accountability and transparency
• Manage performance in public organisations
• Collaborate across agencies and with partners
• Drive service improvement for citizens
