Why attend

A crisis tests an organisation's reputation more than any advertising campaign. This course covers protecting reputation during crises: understanding stakeholder expectations, values-based decisions, transparency and accountability, apologies, engaging critics, social media dynamics and rebuilding trust afterwards.

How an organisation behaves in a crisis defines its reputation for years. You will learn to protect trust when it matters most.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

• Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
• Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
• Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

Case studies of reputational crises, decision simulations, statement exercises and stakeholder role plays.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
• Assess reputational impacts of crises
• Make values-based decisions under pressure
• Communicate with transparency and accountability
• Use apologies appropriately
• Engage critics and stakeholders
• Rebuild trust after the crisis

Target audience

This course is suitable for:
• Senior executives
• Communication and PR leaders
• Crisis team members
• Legal and compliance advisers
• Board members
