Why attend

Organisations succeed when they understand and engage the people who affect or are affected by their decisions. This course covers identifying stakeholders, mapping influence and interest, understanding stakeholder concerns, engagement planning, consultation methods, managing conflict and measuring engagement.

Overlooked stakeholders can delay projects and damage reputation. You will learn to engage the right people at the right time.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

- Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
- Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
- Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

Stakeholder mapping workshops, engagement planning, consultation simulations and case studies.
