Why attend

Strategic communication links communication activity to organisational goals. This course covers situation analysis, setting communication objectives, audience segmentation, messaging frameworks, channel strategy, planning and budgeting, measurement and evaluation and presenting the plan to leadership.

Communication without a strategy wastes effort. You will learn to build plans that deliver measurable results.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

- Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
- Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
- Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

Planning templates, case-based planning workshops, measurement exercises and plan presentations.
